MSKMUN Day 3: Crisis in MSKMUN !!!

Abandon all hope! The Conference is under a terrorist attack!

On the 3rd Day of the Conference, at approximately 15:00, all delegates and chairs were caught off guard when a terrorist attack occurred.

In the school's main yard, the participants were surrounded by a terrorist group and the GA President, as well as Executive Anna Papacharisi were held as hostages.

The group announced their demands and, most importantly, emphasized the fact that the conference was threatened. This problem would cease to exist only if the delegates discussed, debated, and agreed upon a solution, in their respective committees. Everyone returned to their places and tried to reach a common ground.

The well-being of our GA President and Executive remains unknown, while some sources claim that the male terrorist who announced the crisis through the microphones is a member of the Executives (come on everyone can solve the puzzle on who is behind this attack...)

Final Day of Debates

The last day of lobbying and debates in the 1st Middle School

As most committees are starting to conclude their resolution debates and voting procedures, we are reminded that this is the last day of the Conference that will be conducted in the school area itself.

For your consideration, some documents, and photos from the procedure, as well as some detentions.

Saturday was indeed a full day!

Executive Dimitris Thanos on his way to give out 57 detentions in Fictional, 34 detentions in Historical and 48 detentions in Environmental... no one is safe.

Preparations for the General Assembly

The latest updates from today's sessions

POV: The "Rizzler" has taken over your committee and is now your new chair

On Saturday, the delegates discuss in between themselves, regarding the final form of the presented resolutions.

As it is well known, their goal is to convince the committee to vote in favor of their resolution and get it to pass into the next phase, which is the session of the General Assembly on Sunday.

While everyone is preparing for the grand session tomorrow, our Press team captured some unique moments...moments that could only be saved and turned into memes.

It was our duty. Enjoy!

POV: Everyone in your team have agreed upon the final amendments and clauses that you will present in your resolution when you suddenly suggest changing them.

These beautiful people organized this event. We thank you and we hope to see you.

Fictional declares that it exists!!!

Fictional Committee's chairs have responded to the accusations of SPECPOL by simply NOT RESPONDING.

As it was seen today the Fictional Committee continued the procedures required, for the debates, as scheduled and did not bother to officially respond to the theory of its "non-existence" created by their colleagues in the SPECPOL Committee. Now "the ball is in SPECPOL's court" and we can only wait for what comes next.

These people will be your chairs tomorrow...good luck...
